THE ESOP SCHEME 2005

Employees Stock Options have long been recognized internationally, as an effective instrument to align the interest of employees with those of the Company and its shareholders, provide an opportunity to employees to share in the growth of the Company and create long-term wealth in the hands of the employees.

Stock Options create a sense of ownership between the Company and its employees, paving way for a unified approach to the common objective of enhancing overall shareholders value.

Stock Options provide for tax-efficient, performance linked rewards to employees, and serve as an important means to attract, retain and motivate the best available talent for the Company.

From the Company's perspective, Stock Options provide an opportunity to optimize personnel costs by allowing for an additional, market-driven, mechanism to attract, retain, compensate and reward employees.

This document sets out the features of the ESOP Scheme 2005 of the Company, the benefits accruing to the employees under the Scheme, the duties and responsibilities of the beneficiaries and also the procedures to be followed. The document also serve as a reference for the administration of the ESOP. This document should be carefully read and understood and the procedures prescribed need to be diligently observed for availing the benefits under the Scheme.

This document is not in the nature of a legal contract and the same needs to be understood in common commercial parlance.

This is a confidential document and should be treated as such by all.

1. OBJECTIVE & IMPLEMENTATION OF THE ESOP SCHEME

Bharti has always believed in rewarding its employees for their continuous hard work, dedication and support, which has led the Company on a growth path. To enable more and more employees to enjoy the fruits of the phenomenal growth that the Company has witnessed in the recent past, it is proposed to implement the ESOP Scheme - 2005.

The main objective of this Scheme is to give employees who are performing well, a certain minimum opportunity to gain from the Company's performance thereby acting as a retention tool.

This ESOP Scheme comes into force on September 6, 2005 i.e. the date of Tenth Annual General Meeting in which the approval of Shareholders is sought for the ESOP Scheme 2005.

The Scheme has been amended by the Shareholders on October 26, 2007, April 10, 2015, July 24, 2017 and August 12, 2022.

This Scheme may be withdrawn at any time after June 1, 2007 by the HRC.

- 15.7 In the event the employees services are terminated for misconduct, the HRC may by specific order cancel any outstanding vested options to the credit of the employee and cause them to lapse as on the date of separation of the employee or the date of the commission of the offence, whichever is earlier. The HRC may also claim the benefit accrued to such employee due to difference in the exercise price and market price of the shares transferred to it.
- 15.8 In the event that BAL and/or any of its divisions or Subsidiaries are merged or taken over by any other Company, each vested unexercised Option shall be substituted by the options of the successor corporation or a Parent or Subsidiary of the Successor Corporation, in the event that the Successor Corporation refuses to assume or substitute for the options, the Employee shall have the right to exercise the Vested Options as to all of the Optioned Stock including the shares as to which it would not otherwise be vested or exercisable.

16. BENEFITS AND OBLIGATIONS AS SHAREHOLDERS

- 16.1 All the employees who have exercised their options and have been issued / transferred shares upon exercise of options under the ESOP Scheme 2005 will receive all regular benefits as shareholders of the Company like Rights and Bonus Shares etc., only from the date of Transfer / Issue of Equity Shares upon exercise of options under this Scheme.
- 16.2 The employee shall enter into such agreement, as the Company / HRC may desire from time to time to more fully and effectively implement this Scheme.
- 16.3 The employee shall not under any circumstances assign or transfer his rights or obligations under the ESOP Scheme to any third party, except to the nominees.
- 16.4 The employee shall comply with the rules for dealing in the securities of the Company, as may be framed and / or adopted by the HRC from time to time, with respect to trading restrictions.
- 16.5 The HRC shall ensure that the BAL Employees Trading Policy is widely disseminated to the employees to ensure adherence with the applicable laws.
- 16.6 The Equity Shares resulting under ESOP Scheme shall rank pari-passu in all respects with the existing shares of the Company
- 16.7 The Equity shares transferred to the holder upon conversion of the options shall be subject to the provisions of the Articles of Association of the Company.
- 16.8 The Shares allotted / transferred to the Employee upon exercise of options shall be the absolute property of the employee and will be held by the Employee, subject to the lien favouring Bharti for any statutory liability that may arise out of the ESOP Scheme.

17. RISKS FACTORS

- 17.1 Participation in this ESOP shall not be construed as any guarantee of return on the equity investment.
- 17.2 Investment in equity and equity related securities involve a degree of risk and employees should not invest any funds in Exercise of Options unless they can afford to take the risk of losing their investment. For taking a decision to exercise the options, the Employees must rely on their own examination of the Company including the risks involved.
- 17.3 In addition, employee stock options are subject to the following additional risks:
1. Concentration: The risk arising out of any fall in value of shares is aggravated if the employee's holding is concentrated in the shares of a single Company.
 2. Leverage: Any change in the value of the share can lead to a significantly larger change in the value of the option as an option amounts to a levered position in the share.
 3. Illiquidity: The options cannot be transferred to anybody, and therefore the employees cannot mitigate their risks by selling the whole or part of their options before they are exercised.

4. Vesting: The options will lapse if the employment is terminated prior to vesting. Even after the options are vested, the unexercised options may be forfeited if the employee is terminated for gross misconduct.
- 17.4 The Optionee shall not have any right available to the shareholders of the Company i.e. right to vote, right to dividend etc, until the exercise of the options.

18. ACCOUNTING POLICY AND METHOD OF VALUATION OF OPTIONS

- 18.1 The Company shall use the fair value method for valuation of the options.
- 18.2 The Company, its Holding or Subsidiary Company shall confirm to the accounting policies specified in the ESOP Guidelines or such other guidelines as may be prescribed from time to time.

19. TAX LIABILITY

- 19.1 In the event of any tax liability or any other levies including Fringe Benefit Tax (FBT) levied by the government, arising on account of the issue of options and/ or allotment or transfer of the shares to the employee, the liability shall be that of the employee alone and shall be paid/ reimbursed by the employee when due. The Company shall be entitled to recover taxes as may be incurred by it with respect to such employee.
- 19.2 All tax liabilities arising on disposal of the equity shares after exercise shall be borne by the employee.
- 19.3 In the event of any tax liability arising on account of the ESOP Scheme, the HRC shall have the right to cause the equity shares held by the employee under this ESOP, to be sold or otherwise alienated to meet the liability, on behalf of the employee.
- 19.4 Tax on the perquisite value, if any, shall be paid by the employee on exercise or else it shall be deducted from the employee's salary for the subsequent month(s).

20. VARIATION OF TERMS OF THE ESOP SCHEME 2005

- 20.1 The Company shall not vary the terms of the Scheme in any manner, which may be detrimental to the interests of the employees.
- 20.2 Subject to the provisions of the Applicable Laws, HRC shall have the right to alter, vary modify or amend all or any terms of the Scheme at any time without any prior intimation to the employees within the authorisation granted by the Shareholders by way of special resolution in their meeting held on September 6, 2005.
- 20.3 The Company may by special resolution in a general meeting of the Shareholders vary the terms of the Scheme offered pursuant to an earlier resolution of a General Body but not yet exercised by the employee provided such variation is not prejudicial to the interests of the employees.
- 20.4 The notice for passing special resolution for variation of terms of the Scheme shall disclose full details of the variation, the rationale therefore and the details of the employees who are beneficiaries of the variation.

- 20.5 If the Company intends to vary the terms of the ESOP Scheme, particulars of which have already been filed with the Chief Commissioner of Income-tax as per the requirements of proviso to Rule 2 of the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) Guidelines, 2000 ("Guidelines"), the updated scheme shall be filed with the Chief Commissioner of Income Tax as per the applicable provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961 as amended.

Provided that if the terms and conditions are those which are implicit and are to be gathered from other sources and are sought to be put in the Scheme to make itself contained, it may not result in the change in the terms and conditions of the Scheme so as to attract the proviso to Rule 2 of the Guidelines.

21. CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT

- 21.1 This Scheme shall not form part of any contract of employment between the Company and the employee. The rights and obligations of any individual under the terms of his / her office or employment with the Company shall not be affected by his participation in this Scheme.
- 21.2 Nothing in this Scheme shall be construed as affording such an individual any additional rights as to compensation or damages in consequence of the termination of such office or employment for any reason.
- 21.3 This Scheme shall not confer on any person any legal or equitable rights against the Company either directly or indirectly or give rise to any cause of action on law or equity against the Company.

- 22.5 In the event, the employee fails to make nomination or the nominations made by him / her are proven to be unenforceable, the options will be issued to the legal heirs only upon such evidence being produced as may properly be required from time to time by the Company.
- 22.6 The Transmission / Transfer of Options / Shares in the name of nominee shall be valid discharge of its liability by the Company towards the deceased employee/ legal heirs.

- 22.7 The Employee can change his / her nomination(s) at any time during validity of Option before exercise of Options.
- 22.8 In the event the nomination is in the name of foreign national / non-resident Indian the transfer of shares upon exercise of options shall be subject to the applicable laws.

23. MISCELLANEOUS

- 23.1 The Employee shall ensure complete confidentiality in respect of all documents, matters and discussions in relation to the ESOP Scheme, grants, exercise or any other matter incidental or ancillary thereto to and shall not divulge any detail related thereto to any person except with the prior permission of the Company, obtained in writing and except as required under any law for the time being in force. Any violation of the term may result in cancellation of the whole or part of the grant whether vested or not, without prejudice to any other action which may be taken in this regards.
- 23.2 This Scheme shall be subject to all applicable laws, rules, regulations, and notifications and to such approvals by any governmental agencies as may be required. The grant of options under the ESOP Scheme shall entitle the Company (through HRC) to require the eligible employees to comply with such requirements of law as may be necessary in the opinion of the Company.
- 23.3 Any withdrawal / termination of the ESOP Scheme shall not effect Options already granted and such Options shall remain in full force and effect as if the Plan had not been terminated.
- 23.4 This Scheme is purely at the discretion of the Company and can be withdrawn by the Company at any time after June 1, 2007 without any prior notice to the Employees of the Company.
- 23.5 Nothing contained in the Scheme shall be construed to prevent the Company directly or through any trust settled by the Company, from implementing any other new Scheme or Plan for granting stock options and/or share purchase rights, which is deemed by the Company to be appropriate or in its best interest, whether or not such other action would have any adverse impact on the Scheme or any grant made under the Scheme. No Employee or other person shall have any claim against the Company and/or trust as a result of such action.
- 23.6 The shares allotted to Employees on Exercise of Options shall be listed on the stock exchanges subject to the terms and conditions of this scheme and terms and conditions of the listing agreement.
- 23.7 Any Dispute arising out of or in connection with the ESOP Scheme or the Grant shall be referred to for the Arbitration to an Arbitrator to be appointed by the HRC. The arbitration proceedings shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The place of Arbitration shall be New Delhi, India.
- 23.8 The Optionee shall ensure that there is no violation of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Fraudulent and Unfair Trade Practices relating to Securities Market) Regulations, 2003.
- 23.9 The Optionee shall indemnify and keep the Company indemnified in respect of any liability arising as a result or consequences of the violation of any applicable laws by the Optionee.
