It may be noted that this is the First and Final Call and no further calls will be made in respect of the partly paid-up equity shares of the Company.

2. Which shareholders are required to pay the First and Final Call?

The Eligible Shareholders holding the partly paid-up equity shares of Bharti Airtel Limited ('Company') as on Friday, February 06, 2026 ('Record Date'), are required to pay the First and Final Call of ₹ 401.25 per share (comprising ₹ 3.75 towards face value and ₹ 397.50 towards premium) on the partly paid-up equity shares held by them.

3. Is there any impact of the First and Final Call on my existing partly paid-up equity shares?

Please note that the trading in partly paid-up equity shares (ISIN: IN9397D01014) of the Company has been suspended on the Stock Exchanges with effect from Friday, February 06, 2026 (i.e., closing hours of trading on Thursday, February 05, 2026) on account of the First and Final Call.

The Eligible Shareholders who pay the First and Final Call on their partly paid-up equity shares during the First and Final Call Payment Period, shall be allotted fully paid-up equity shares of face value of ₹ 5 each of the Company under the existing ISIN (INE397D01024), upon completion of necessary regulatory formalities including corporate actions by the Company with the Stock Exchanges. The aforesaid process is expected to complete within a period of two weeks from the last date of First and Final Call Payment Period after which the fully paid-up equity shares so allotted to the Eligible Shareholders will be available for trading on Stock Exchanges.

4. What are the modes of payment of the First and Final Call?

The First and Final Call can be paid through following modes

- (a) Online ASBA: Eligible Shareholders can visit the website of the Self-Certified Syndicate Banks ('SCSBs'), to block the money payable towards First and Final Call, in their respective bank accounts.
- (b) Physical ASBA: Eligible Shareholders can submit duly filled physical ASBA Application Form (enclosed with the First and Final Call Notice as Annexure 2) at the designated branch of the SCSB, to block the money payable towards First and Final Call, in their respective bank accounts.

Please visit www.sebi.gov.in/sebiweb/other/OtherAction.do?doRecognisedFpi=yes&intmId=35, to view the list of SCSBs. The existing list of SCSBs as on the date of the First and Final Call Notice, forms part of the ASBA Application Form enclosed with this First and Final Call Notice.

- (c) Payment through 3-in-1 online trading-demat-bank account: In accordance with the SEBI circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL1/CIR/238/2020 dated December 8, 2020, Eligible Shareholders can also make the payment towards First and Final Call by using the facility of linked online trading-demat-bank account (3-in-1 type account), wherever offered by the brokers. Eligible Shareholders may with their respective broker for availability of the 3-in-1 type account facility and process to be followed in this regard. If the facility is made available by the broker, the Eligible Shareholders can login to their demat account and proceed with the payment for First and Final Call of Bharti Airtel Limited, under the relevant tab. The Company or the Registrar and Share Transfer Agent ('RTA') will not be responsible for non-availability or any action(s) related to this payment method to the Eligible Shareholders from their respective brokers.

5. Is there any cut-off time of making First and Final Call payment?

Please note that the last date of payment is Monday, March 16, 2026. Payments through ASBA process will be uploaded until 5:00 p.m. (Indian Standard Time). Eligible Shareholders are requested to check with their respective banks for cut-off time to submit the ASBA Application Form.

6. Whether any cash payment or part payment is permitted?

No cash payment shall be accepted. The Eligible Shareholders are strictly advised to make the payment of First and Final Call via the payment modes specified in FAQ no. 4 above.

Further, no part payment shall be accepted. Any part payment shall be treated as non-payment of First and Final Call and may render the partly paid-up equity shares, including the amount already paid thereon at the time of application, liable to be forfeited in accordance with the provisions of the Act, Articles of Association of the Company and the Letter of Offer (please refer to FAQ no. 7 for detailed consequence of non-payment/ failure to pay First and Final Call). However, in the event that a holder of partly paid-up equity shares makes a payment pursuant to the First and Final Call which is less than the aggregate amount payable by such holder in respect of the partly paid-up equity shares held by such holder as on the Record Date, the Board or any duly authorised Committee of the Board, at its discretion, may consider converting such number of partly paid-up equity shares into fully paid-up equity shares as is proportionate to the amount paid by such holder.

Illustration: If a shareholder holds 100 partly paid-up equity shares as on the Record Date, the aggregate amount payable by such holder pursuant to the First and Final Call shall be ₹40,125. If such holder makes a payment of ₹8,025, such holder shall be entitled to conversion of 20 equity shares into fully paid-up equity shares, in proportion to the amount paid. The remaining 80 partly paid-up equity shares, in respect of which the First and Final Call remains unpaid, may be liable to be forfeited in accordance with the provisions of the Act, Articles of Association of the Company and the Letter of Offer.

7. What are the consequences if I do not pay the First and Final Call? And what would happen to my partly paid-up shares?

Following are the consequences of failure to pay First and Final Call:

- (a) Interest @ 10% (Ten percent) per annum will be payable for delay in payment of First and Final Call beyond Monday, March 16, 2026 till the actual date of payment;
- (b) The Company, if decided by its Board, shall be entitled to apply any future dividend payable to you, in or towards all sums of money outstanding on account of calls and interest; due thereon in relation to the partly paid-up equity shares of the Company; and
- (c) The partly paid-up equity shares of the Company currently held by you, including the amount already paid thereon at the time of application, shall be liable to be forfeited on failure to pay the First and Final Call, in accordance with the Articles of Association of the Company and the Letter of Offer.

If an Eligible Shareholder fails to pay the First and Final Call during the First and Final Call Payment Period for any reason whatsoever, neither the Company nor the RTA shall be responsible or liable for such failure.

8. What happens to the amount blocked in my bank account?

The amount shall remain blocked in the ASBA account until the completion of the First and Final Call process and shall be debited only upon successful completion of the First and Final Call process.

The blocked amount will be automatically unblocked in cases where the payment is not successful or where excess/ duplicate amounts are paid, in accordance with the ASBA process.

9. What if I pay the excess/ duplicate amount towards First and Final Call?

Excess/duplicate amount paid, or amount paid by person who is not an Eligible Shareholder as on the Record Date or short payment made by an Eligible Shareholder in case the same cannot be adjusted (as per the process mentioned in FAQ no. 6 above), will be unblocked in his/ her bank account as per ASBA process.

10. I am holding partly paid-up equity shares in a demat account. Can I apply through ASBA by using different demat account?

Eligible Shareholders shall ensure that the partly paid-up equity shares are held in the same demat account as specified in the ASBA application. In the event it is found during verification that the partly paid-up equity shares are held in a demat account other than the one mentioned in the ASBA application, such application shall be liable to be rejected.

11. My partly paid-up equity shares are lying in the suspense account of the Company, what should I do?

In such cases, you are requested to contact KFin Technologies Limited, Registrar and Transfer Agent of the Company.

12. When would the new fully paid-up equity shares allotted to me upon payment of First and Final Call, be available for trading on Stock Exchanges?

Please refer to FAQ no. 3 above.

13. Where can I access my First and Final Call Notice?

Eligible Shareholders may access their First and Final Call Notice through the following modes:

Eligible Shareholders whose email addresses are registered: Shareholders may refer to the detailed email sent by the Company on their registered email IDs, containing First and Final Call Notice, Detailed Instructions and ASBA Application Form.

Eligible Shareholders whose email addresses are not registered: Shareholders may refer to the physical copy of the First and Final Call Notice along with the detailed instructions and ASBA Application Form sent by the Company on the registered addresses of such shareholders.
