It contains adequate information about the Related Party transaction(s) and provides the Board/Audit Committee members sufficient time and information to consider and review the proposed transaction(s).

4.2. Review and approval of Related Party Transactions

4.2.1. Approval of Audit Committee

4.2.1.1. Unless otherwise provided under applicable laws, all the transactions which are identified as Related Party Transactions and material modifications/ subsequent modifications thereof, shall be approved by the Audit Committee in the manner specified under the Act and/or SEBI Listing Regulations (as applicable). The Audit Committee shall consider all relevant factors before granting its approval to the proposed transaction.

4.2.1.2. The Audit Committee shall also approve Related Party Transactions, where the Company is not a party, but the Company's subsidiary is a party, if the value of the proposed transaction(s) exceeds the thresholds as prescribed under the Listing Regulations.

4.2.1.3. The Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for Related Party Transactions which are repetitive in nature, subject to such criteria/conditions as mentioned under Regulation 23(3) of SEBI Listing Regulations or any other applicable provisions and such other conditions as it may consider necessary in line with this Policy and in the interest of the Company. Such omnibus approval shall be valid for a period not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approval after the expiry of one year.

4.2.1.4. The Audit Committee may also grant omnibus approval for Unforeseen Related Party Transactions in the manner specified under the SEBI Listing Regulations.

4.2.1.5. Audit Committee shall review the following:

- (i) details of Related Party Transactions entered into by the Company pursuant to the Omnibus Approval accorded in terms of clause 4.2.1.3 above, on a quarterly basis; and
- (ii) status of long-term (more than one year) or recurring transactions, on an annual basis.

4.2.1.6. Only those members of Audit Committee who are Independent Directors, will approve Related Party Transactions. Any member of Audit Committee having a potential interest in the proposed RPT, will recuse himself and abstain from discussion and voting on the proposal for approval of the said transaction.

4.2.2. Approval of Board of Directors

4.2.2.1. Following Related Party Transactions shall require prior approval of the Board of Directors of the Company:

- (i) Transactions in which any of the Directors or the KMPs of the Company are concerned or interested.
- (ii) Transactions specified in Section 188(1) of the Act which are not in the ordinary course of business and/or not on arm's length terms.
- (iii) Material Related Party Transactions which are proposed to be placed before the Shareholders for approval.
- (iv) Related Party Transactions where Audit Committee of the Company is of the opinion that the same should be brought before the Board of Directors or if the Board of Directors suo-moto decides to review any such transaction.
- (v) Related Party Transactions for which approval of the Board of Directors is mandatory under any applicable law for time being in force.
- (vi) Any Material Modification to the Related Party Transactions already approved by the Board of Directors.
- (vii) Any other transaction as may be prescribed by the Shareholders from time to time.

4.2.2.2. Any Director having a potential interest in the proposed RPT will recuse himself and abstain from discussion and voting on the proposal for approval of the said transaction.

4.2.3. Approval of Shareholders

4.2.3.1. Following Related Party Transactions shall require prior approval of the Shareholders of the Company:

- (i) Material Related Party Transactions and Material Modifications thereto.
- (ii) Transactions specified in Section 188(1) of the Act which:
 - are not in the ordinary course of business and/or not on arm's length terms; and
 - exceed the threshold specified in Rule 15(3) of Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014, including any statutory modification or reenactment thereof.

4.2.3.2. No member of the Company shall vote on the resolution to approve any transaction covered under Clause 4.2.3.1(ii) above, if such member is a related party to the proposed contract or arrangement.

4.2.3.3. No Related Party shall vote to approve any transaction covered under Clause 4.2.3.1(i) above, whether the entity is a related party in the context of particular transaction or not.

4.2.4. Exceptions

4.2.4.1. The approval of the Audit Committee or Board or Shareholders of the Company shall not be required for the following Related Party Transactions:

- (a) Transactions entered into between the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary company whose accounts are consolidated with the Company and placed before the Shareholders of the Company at the general meeting for approval.
